

DT6 - Universal Kitchen Drainer Tray

DIMENSIONS

Length: 442mm, Width: 440mm, Depth: 10mm

DESCRIPTION

As experts in the Kitchen Sink industry for over 28 years, we know how important your kitchen sink and its accessories are to your daily life. That's why we developed this universally fitting stainless steel drainer tray to give your sink as much functionality as possible, making washing and drying that much simpler. It features a sloped edge to effectively drain dripping water from the draining board, whilst its rubber feet serve to hold it in place and protect your benchtop. It can be used as a detachable drainer extension for most sinks, so get yours today and see just how much easier life can be!

- Can be used as a detachable drainer extension universal to most sinks
- Constructed from High quality 304 grade, 18/10 stainless steel
- This drainer will most likely not fit over the top of most bowls but is rather designed to rest on your benchtop.
- Features a sloped edge to effectively drain water from the draining board.
